Dear Member,

Bus E-News: Bus Driver Safety Campaign Update

We have been advised that the next phase in the case against the man accused of murdering Manmeet Sharma will play out at the Magistrates Court, corner of Georg n' Turbot streets, Brisbane on Thursday 2nd February. His legal team will move to have the whole thing transferred to the Mental Health Court situated next door.

Public protesters will be gathering from 11am -12.30. This will allow more bus drivers to attend. We don't know what time the case will be heard as cases are only listed for the day, but be sure the RTBU will be there when it comes up.

Unity is Strength
